

From garments to bedding, stitchers/sewers are in high demand

BRISTOL TEXTILE & APPAREL PARTNERSHIP

Would you like to be a stitcher/sewing machine operator?
Are you unemployed?

Become a Sewing Machine Operator

Through short term training

Explore the growing opportunities for Employment in the sewn-product industry

- ✓ Receive hands-on training and instruction as a machine operator
- ✓ Curriculum includes: understanding the industrial machine, basic sewing techniques, cut and sew safety, language and literacy skills if needed

To register or for more information contact:

Patricia Benevides 508-730-5012

pbenevides@masshirebristol.org or

Stephanie Louro 508-676-1916

SLouro@ser-jobs.com

For Spanish speaking only

Joana Mateus 508-675-1165 ext 108

jmateus@masshirebristol.org

Certain eligibility requirements apply

CLASSES START ON FEBRUARY 25, 2019

Single needle

Multi Needle

Employment

This project is funded by a Workforce Competitiveness Trust Fund FY'17 Appropriation grant through the Massachusetts Executive Office of Labor and Workforce Development and is administered by the Commonwealth Corporation

COMMONWEALTH CORPORATION
Building skills for a strong economy.